To Whom It May Concern:

Larry G. Jones, Man of 1002 Voices, has been working steadily in Las Vegas for many years. I have seen him around town and his DVD showcases his abilities well. We, at Baskow & Associates, have represented him since 2001. He has headlined at the Plaza Hotel in Downtown Las Vegas for the last several years with great success.

Larry G. Jones would make a fine member to IACEP and I am happy to write this letter on his behalf.

What a great show! Showman of the year, Larry G. Jones! The Florida State University Boosters chartered the Regent Navigator for May 10, 2008 through our company. They looked at us to bring entertainment up a level on our cruise and we in turn looked to Larry G. Jones. It meant that our client had to pay out more money and then hope that it was all worth it. We took a chance when we requested an impressionist that none of us had ever seen in person. However, after the first show, I breathed a sigh of relief and said "Thank God. What a fabulous show!"

Although I knew that the rest of Larry's shows would be everything we hoped they would be, I had no idea that he would go beyond the call of "showman" as he entertained in various other ways throughout the week. Larry was more than a showman, he was a complete entertainer, because he went beyond what you see on stage as part of a show and incorporated the cruisers into his humor throughout the week. He even re-wrote his shows to encompass special jokes and issues that would pertain to this specific group. I think that the passengers left with a feeling that they got to know him in a way that made them all "friends". To just see him approach would make you smile in anticipation of something fun to come.

Even when Larry shared a serious part of his life during one show, it was not done to make us laugh at his deep misfortune in his life or to feel sadness, but rather to let us feel uplifted. Life is good. Every day that we spend with those we care about; every day that we do what we do best, it's all good...it's a reason to have joy and to laugh.

We got quite a bit more than we bargained for ...than we paid for...we got the whole package...Nothing short of "Entertainer of the Year".

Dear Larry,

It is always a pleasure to get a response from a satisfied client, but it is a special treasure to have the client say that "the Agency for Speakers and Entertainers continues to be our speakers bureau of choice." Thanks to you, Larry, for helping us maintain this status with CDS.

Your performance to the 400 employees and suppliers of CDS was OUTSTANDING. We have heard nothing but rave reviews. As an agent who books hundreds of events annually, I can honestly say that you top the list in positive comments from clients. It is, indeed, a pleasure to work with a consummate professional like yourself, one on whom we can rely on to tend to the details from pre-planning and set up through the actual performance and follow-up.

We at the Agency for Speakers look forward to working with you again in the future so we can keep those "satisfied client letters" coming. Thanks again for your positive support in helping us look good. It's people like you who make our job a lot easier — and more satisfying.

Best regards,

Dear Larry:

This letter is to thank you for all you did to make the final banquet of the Taxicab, Limousine & Paratransit Association convention a huge success!

Trying to please a demanding crowd on an association budget is my biggest challenge every year, but this year I heard comments such as "terrific entertainment" and "best entertainment yet". They loved you! Not only does your act portray an incredible talent, but it is funny and crowd interactive – a very successful combination.

As a planner, I appreciated your flexibility on the timing of your performance and also the fact you actually wanted to interact face-to-face with our group prior to your performance – to actually get to know them and find out what they might enjoy.

Las Vegas is on the rotation for this group, and I'm certain I'll be contacting you again in a few years for an encore!

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

I wanted to take a few moments to let you know what a wonderful show you provided for my event on March 21, 2003.

The Realtor/Builder Appreciation Gala is an event to recognize the top producing Realtors and Builders in The Woodlands, Texas each year for their outstanding sells. This is the largest event I plan each year with attendance growing every year. This past was the largest ever with over 350 attending. Your show was by far the favorite of the last several years! You provided a great variety of acts and impressions so there was something for everyone to enjoy no matter the age. From your great voice to the comedy impressions, I really couldn't choose a favorite!

This evening was the talk of the town for days to follow. From Willie Nelson to James Brown, to Ray Charles to Frank Sinatra, and of course Bill Clinton, you totally entertained the entire audience.

To Whom It May Concern:

It gives us great pleasure to recommend Larry G Jones for the Event Solutions Spotlight Award in the category of "Entertainment of the Year." The Northwest Credit Union Association hired Larry to perform at one of our social/networking events at the 2011 Annual Convention in Tacoma, Washington.

During our working relationship, Larry was consistently professional, timely, and creative in customizing his performance for our audience. Our membership consisted of a diverse group of individuals, and he was successful in engaging every era and personality in the audience.

Larry is truly a talented artist, and seeks to embrace his client's vision. Larry is prompt at answering questions, accommodating requests, and addressing concerns in a timely and professional manner. We were pleased at Larry's contribution to our event, and would not hesitate to work with him again. As such, we are pleased to recommend Larry G Jones with enthusiasm and great confidence that he will continue to provide the same quality of performance throughout his career.

Sincerely,

The Northwest Credit Union Association

Dear Event Solutions Spotlight Awards,

I met Larry G Jones as a new member to the Washington State Chapter of MPI after he had moved from Las Vegas. When I first met him, I knew there was something special about him, in addition to the numerous awards he had won over multiple years in Las Vegas.

He was interested in getting involved with the chapter so I suggested he join the marketing committee. In addition, I was looking for an opening act for the band at our yearly Cascadia Education Conference that is a collaboration between MPI Washington and MPI Oregon and attracts over 250 people.

Larry is a true professional and it showed as he worked hard to customize our show to our Back To The Future theme by incorporating songs from the 50's and moving through the 60's, 70's, 80's, 90's, 2000 and present day before heading to the future! Larry had the most detailed rider of all our performers and these details all go into creating the experience of a lifetime.

Yet, nothing prepared me or all of us as the lights went down, Larry hit the stage and all of us looked at each other in jaw dropping disbelief! He nailed every song, every note and every impersonation. We were all blown away by his talent and his ability to entertain us, this guy is GOOD!

Finally, Larry worked with us to get everybody on the dance floor with his last song and seamlessly integrated with our band as they picked up the drum beat from his last song and started their first song. We had our most successful Gala because of Larry's hard work and dedication to his craft. In addition, we had a successful conference with 98% saying that they would return next year and I know Larry was a part of that result.

Larry has been hard at work at his craft for decades and I know it would be a great accolade for him to win the Event Solutions Entertainer of the Year. I know he's won my award for his service to me and our MPI Chapter.

Sincerely,
John Anne Chen

To Whom It May Concern:

We were amazed when we saw the versatility of Larry G Jones' fast-paced show when we saw him perform to standing ovations at the Imperial Palace in Las Vegas. We asked Larry to showcase for talent buyers in south Florida and subsequently booked him for over 35 shows.

For these sold out one-hour plus shows, Larry came up with lots of new material, completely revamped, and tailored his performances to appeal to the specific demographic. He even went out of his way to take special requests to mention or celebrate particular people, occasions, or voices at some venues. Larry's work ethic and dedication to excellence became apparent when even though he was already getting standing ovations (often two ovations) nightly he continually dedicated his late nights to tweak the show 'on-site' throughout the many dates he performed.

Every single audience absolutely loved his performances and both his on and off stage personality. Eight months later, Larry's show continues to receive rave reviews. The positive feedback regarding his professionalism and 'can do' attitude from the technical crews and entertainment directors continues to reflect brightly on our agency and has helped us maintain long lasting relationships with our clients. We still have more bookings for him to come and look forward to working with him again...and again.

Entertainment Network Winner
"BEST AGENT"

To Whom it May Concern,

Classique Productions is one of the largest entertainment agencies focusing on Celebrity Impersonators and Tribute Acts in the United States of America.

I am writing this letter as a recommendation letter regarding the amazing talent of Larry G Jones.

I have seen Larry perform at many events and have hired him for events I produce as well. He has always exceeded my expectations in every way.

The ultimate professional, he brings a rare and appreciated creativity to the table, sharing ideas and making suggestions that are both innovative and timely. He is the knot that ties the show together.

An example is when I hired him for a show for a very difficult client with a great many acts on one stage, with an attempt to "theme" the show even with all the different acts. Larry was the Emcee and did comedy bits throughout the show. He customized the show and selected "bits" that totally tied my theme together and drew the audience into the show with perfection. My client was thrilled, which in turn made me thrilled with Larry's ability to make the theme come alive and allow my client to realize his vision with the show. In short, he made me look good!

I have experienced Larry working his magic as a solo performer doing his own show and I have experienced Larry's leadership abilities as part of a show with a large cast. In both cases, he has excelled.

We look forward to working with Larry at every opportunity and I can recommend him without hesitation.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you for the fantastic performance to the American College of Dentists after our luncheon in Las Vegas. Your talent is amazing! You definitely connected with the audience and you were a perfect fit for our meeting and the venue—the standing ovation at the end said it all. Our members were still talking about you long afterward and the feedback has been extremely positive. In short, you were a big hit and you greatly exceeded our already high expectations.

Thanks for helping make our meeting such a success!

With deepest appreciation for a "job well done."
