LAS VEGAS PRESS/ REVIEWS:

"I've seen all over 85 shows in Las Vegas and Larry G Jones' show is among the best of the best. He is a phenomenal singer, comedian, and all around entertainer" -Vegas4Locals.com

"A High energy show that routinely elicits dozens of characters in rapid succession. As talented as many on the Las Vegas strip. -Las Vegas Sun

"He was buzzing through impressions so full of one-liners and comedic lyrics that you barely stopped laughing at the last one before he hit you with another zinger. Heir to Danny Gans." -
Accessvegas.com -2001

"His mannerisms & voices are dead-on, it is his comical parodies that set him apart. Unlike most impressionists Jones can readily switch his voice from men to women and back again"
- Las Vegas Senior Press

The fast-moving show features about 70 impressions - everyone from Sammy Davis Jr., to Johnny Cash, to George W. Bush, to Bill Cosby to Cher get the Jones treatment.

It never seems to matter whether the subject of his impersonation is male or female, high or low voice, all over the tabloids or a one-hit wonder from the '70s. Jones channels all his subjects with sensitivity and a sense of humor. Larry has an impressive vocal range and when he breaks into "I Can't Get Next to You," singing all four of the Temptations' vocal parts, it's not only hilarious, it's astounding." - Las Vegas Magazine

"His talents are a strong rival to every other impressionist in Las Vegas. Jones has a masterful ability to manipulate his body, his face, and his voice. His routine gives us a fast paced and delightful romp through musical history, and we relive the times by hearing our favorite artists. He has the ability to do both male and female voices, and his rendition of Cher is a highlight in the evening!"
-lgoshows.com

"Jones not only delivers terrific impressions, his comedic talent is well-timed and physically impressive. He's got the sound, facial expressions, the moves - and the talent. His parody of Johnny Cash's Ring of Fire is hilarious; likewise Julio Iglesias and Willie Nelson. His duet between Nat King Cole and daughter Natalie Cole is awesome." -EverythingLV.com

"It's the delivery and comedic lyrics of the songs that make this show a winner. I've gotta tell ya, this guy can sing. Larry combines his great voice with a personality that marks this show's appeal. He could make it just as well as a singer who does impressions rather than an impressionist who sings" -LasVegas.com

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Reference Larry Jones:

March 29, 2008

We contracted Larry Jones for a private engagement with excellent results. His performance was well received by an audience with a wide age range of guests for a Fund Raising event in Florida. We will continue to promote Larry Jones, a talented professional singing impressionist comedian. Larry was responsive to a challenging set-up and sound check time and has a "can do" attitude to make the event a success.

Entertainment Network Winner
"BEST AGENT"

July 14, 2010

To Whom it May Concern,

Classique Productions is one of the largest entertainment agencies focusing on Celebrity Impersonators and Tribute Acts in the United States of America.

I am writing this letter as a recommendation letter regarding the amazing talent of Larry G Jones.

I have seen Larry perform at many events and have hired him for events I produce as well. He has always exceeded my expectations in every way.

The ultimate professional, he brings a rare and appreciated creativity to the table, sharing ideas and making suggestions that are both innovative and timely. He is the knot that ties the show together.

An example is when I hired him for a show for a very difficult client with a great many acts on one stage, with an attempt to "theme" the show even with all the different acts. Larry was the Emcee and did comedy bits throughout the show. He customized the show and selected "bits" that totally tied my theme together and drew the audience into the show with perfection. My client was thrilled, which in turn made me thrilled with Larry's ability to make the theme come alive and allow my client to realize his vision with the show. In short, he made me look good!

I have experienced Larry working his magic as a solo performer doing his own show and I have experienced Larry's leadership abilities as part of a show with a large cast. In both cases, he has excelled.

We look forward to working with Larry at every opportunity and I can recommend him without hesitation.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

We were amazed when we saw the versatility of Larry G Jones' fast-paced show when we saw him perform to standing ovations at the Imperial Palace in Las Vegas. We asked Larry to showcase for talent buyers in south Florida and subsequently booked him for over 35 shows.

For these sold out one-hour plus shows, Larry came up with lots of new material, completely revamped, and tailored his performances to appeal to the specific demographic. He even went out of his way to take special requests to mention or celebrate particular people, occasions, or voices at some venues. Larry's work ethic and dedication to excellence became apparent when even though he was already getting standing ovations (often two ovations) nightly he continually dedicated his late nights to tweak the show 'on-site' throughout the many dates he performed.

Every single audience absolutely loved his performances and both his on and off stage personality. Eight months later, Larry's show continues to receive rave reviews. The positive feedback regarding his professionalism and 'can do' attitude from the technical crews and entertainment directors continues to reflect brightly on our agency and has helped us maintain long lasting relationships with our clients. We still have more bookings for him to come and look forward to working with him again...and again.

Entertainer of the Year
~Larry G. Jones~

What a great show! Showman of the year, Larry G. Jones! The Florida State University Boosters chartered the Regent Navigator for May 10, 2008 through our company. They looked at us to bring entertainment up a level on our cruise and we in turn looked to Larry G. Jones. It meant that our client had to pay out more money and then hope that it was all worth it. We took a chance when we requested an impressionist that none of us had ever seen in person. However, after the first show, I breathed a sigh of relief and said "Thank God. What a fabulous show!"

Although I knew that the rest of Larry's shows would be everything we hoped they would be, I had no idea that he would go beyond the call of "showman" as he entertained in various other ways throughout the week. Larry was more than a showman, he was a complete entertainer, because he went beyond what you see on stage as part of a show and incorporated the cruisers into his humor throughout the week. He even re-wrote his shows to encompass special jokes and issues that would pertain to this specific group. I think that the passengers left with a feeling that they got to know him in a way that made them all "friends". To just see him approach would make you smile in anticipation of something fun to come.

Even when Larry shared a serious part of his life during one show, it was not done to make us laugh at his deep misfortune in his life or to feel sadness, but rather to let us feel uplifted. Life is good. Every day that we spend with those we care about; every day that we do what we do best, it's all good...it's a reason to have joy and to laugh.

We got quite a bit more than we bargained for ...than we paid for...we got the whole package...Nothing short of "Entertainer of the Year".

Dear Larry,

It is always a pleasure to get a response from a satisfied client, but it is a special treasure to have the client say that "the Agency for Speakers and Entertainers continues to be our speakers bureau of choice." Thanks to you, Larry, for helping us maintain this status with CDS.

Your performance to the 400 employees and suppliers of CDS was OUTSTANDING. We have heard nothing but rave reviews. As an agent who books hundreds of events annually, I can honestly say that you top the list in positive comments from clients. It is, indeed, a pleasure to work with a consummate professional like yourself, one on whom we can rely on to tend to the details from pre-planning and set up through the actual performance and follow-up.

We at the Agency for Speakers look forward to working with you again in the future so we can keep those "satisfied client letters" coming. Thanks again for your positive support in helping us look good. It's people like you who make our job a lot easier — and more satisfying.

Best regards,

Dear Larry:

This letter is to thank you for all you did to make the final banquet of the Taxicab, Limousine & Paratransit Association convention a huge success!

Trying to please a demanding crowd on an association budget is my biggest challenge every year, but this year I heard comments such as "terrific entertainment" and "best entertainment yet". They loved you! Not only does your act portray an incredible talent, but it is funny and crowd interactive – a very successful combination.

As a planner, I appreciated your flexibility on the timing of your performance and also the fact you actually wanted to interact face-to-face with our group prior to your performance – to actually get to know them and find out what they might enjoy.

Las Vegas is on the rotation for this group, and I'm certain I'll be contacting you again in a few years for an encore!

Thanks again.

I wanted to take a few moments to let you know what a wonderful show you provided for my event on March 21, 2003.

The Realtor/Builder Appreciation Gala is an event to recognize the top producing Realtors and Builders in The Woodlands, Texas each year for their outstanding sells. This is the largest event I plan each year with attendance growing every year. This past was the largest ever with over 350 attending. Your show was by far the favorite of the last several years! You provided a great variety of acts and impressions so there was something for everyone to enjoy no matter the age. From your great voice to the comedy impressions, I really couldn't choose a favorite!

This evening was the talk of the town for days to follow. From Willie Nelson to James Brown, to Ray Charles to Frank Sinatra, and of course Bill Clinton, you totally entertained the entire audience.

Thank you very much for including The Woodlands, Texas on your calendar for one of your many performances in 2003.

Dear Raphael and Larry,

Thanks so much again for such a great performance last Monday. It was an incredible start to an incredible week and I very much appreciate how accommodating you were with the group. They loved every second!

We definitely exhausted them in Vegas, but they pushed through and had a memorable time to say the least. Alecka and I just got back to England yesterday and we're desperately trying to recover!

We hope that the new show is a great success and look forward to seeing you again next time we're in town.

All the best,

Clementine
